

2010 INAFCS State Conference

Wyndham West Hotel, Indianapolis Indiana
September 22-24, 2010

CALL for RESEARCH/CREATIVE ABSTRACTS

The 2010 INAFCS Annual Meeting will be held from September 22-24 at Wyndham West Hotel, in Indianapolis. The planning committee invites research and scholarly papers, creative programs or products, and best practice displays to be exhibited on Thursday, September 23. Exhibits should be up by 10:00 am and presenters or co-presenters need to be at their exhibits from 2:30-3:30 p.m. to talk with attendees and answer any questions. If you are interested or know of someone (e.g. student) who is interested in presenting their research, creative endeavors, or best practices in any area of Family and Consumer Sciences, please use the following guidelines to submit abstracts for peer review.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission

1. Type single spaced on 8-1/2" x 11" white paper. Leave one inch margin on each of the four sides. Font size no smaller than 12. Do not exceed one page.
2. Center on the a) first line - title of the presentation, b) second line - name of the author(s) Place an asterisk (*) following the name of the presenting author and c) third line- name of author(s) institution.
3. Abstract should encompass a) objective (s), b) methods, c) results and d) implications.
4. One copy of the abstract with author(s) and names of institution(s)
5. Two copies of the abstract without author(s) and institution(s) for blind review
6. At least one presenting author must be a member of INAFCS.
7. All presenters must register for the conference.

For consideration abstracts must be received at the following address or electronically no later than August 30, 2010.

Jay Kandiah, PhD, RD, CD.
Research Chair
Department of Family and Consumer Sciences
AT 150
Ball State University
Muncie, IN 47306
Tel: (765) 285-5922/-5931
E-mail:jkandiah@bsu.edu